Save The Double-crested Cormorants

Date: Thursday April 8 Time: 12pm - 1pm

Protest at College and University intersection between 12pm - 1pm

The McGuinty government is set to authorize the shooting of 6000 Double-crested Cormorants at Presqu'ile Provincial Park. Cormorants are a migratory bird that nest on the Great Lakes. Once on the brink of extinction, they are now on the government chopping block.
